THE WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS.

The Ball Has Been Rolling at a Real Lively Rate.

The social ball has been kept rolling at a lively rate this week. The delightful meeting of the Social Card Club on Tuesday afternoon at which Mrs. J. H. Walsh was hostess, the Shakespeare Club's interesting evening at Mrs. Brooks', and the successful german given by the Crocail Club on Wednesday night, are among the special events that have made the week pass pleasantly.

* * * *

Mrs. B. Frank Mebane entertained a few friends very charmingly at luncheon Wednesday afternoon. The lovely color scheme of yellow added to the attractiveness of the handsome rooms.

* * * *

If all the meetings of the recently organized Progressive Euchre Club will be as delightful as the first one held last evening, at which Mrs W. P. Bynum was the gracious hostess, the members have indeed a great deal to look forward to. Great masses of white and purple lilacs enhanced the beauty of the parlors, and in the dining room, where a delicious repast was served, Wistiria made a graceful and effective decoration. The game was intensely interesting and Mrs. Macgill, of Danville, Miss Berta Mebane and Mrs. B. C. Sharp having won an equal number of games, cut for the prize. Mrs. Macgill was the lucky one and received a cute little pink lamp. Mr. Oscar Williams received the gentleman's prize, a silver nail file. Among those present were: Misses Berta Mebane, Nina Jones, Mary Horry, Francis O'Brien, Imogen Barnard, Bessie Ballard, Wetmore, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Gayle, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Williams, Mrs. C. Mebane, Mr. and Mrs. Will Menefee, Mrs. Macgill, Mrs. B. C. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Parker, General and Mrs. James D. Glenn, and Messrs. Giles Mebane, R. D Douglas, Mr. Johnson, H. C. Berger and Temp Horry.

* * * *

Miss Beulah Wilson, of Morganton, spent a short while in the city last evening, enroute home from Winston.

* * * *

Judge and Mrs. W. P. Bynum will leave Monday for a short visit to Richmond, Va.

* * * *

The May "Puritan" contains portraits of three North Carolina beauties, Mrs. C. F. Roy and Miss Bertha Mason, both of Asheville, also of Miss Oberia Rogers, of Waynesville, formerly a student of the Normal and Industrial College who is remembered as a beautiful and clever girl. Miss Rogers has no reason to become vain, however, over this picture, for it is a most outrageous libel on her good looks.

* * * *

Miss Leslie C. West of Danville, the guest of Miss Francis O'Brien for several days, returned home today.

* * * *

A very recherche luncheon was given by Mrs. G. W. Whitsett at her hospitable home on Church Street this afternoon. The parlor where Mrs. Whitsett received her guests was beautifully decorated with pansies and narcissus.

The dining room where covers were laid for nine, was a dream of beauty. The highly polished table was covered with handsome pieces of Battenburg lace, the exquisite work of the deft fingers of the hostess. Carnations in graceful arrangement formed the chief decoration. The places at the table were designated by anagrams characteristic of each person.

As this affair was given complimentary to the ladies who composed the house party given by Miss Mendenhall and Miss Hackney at "The Oaks," Miss Mendenhall's country home, last August, the acorn sprays tied with white ribbon were peculiarly appropriate souvenirs.

Mrs. Whitsett's guests were Miss Mendenhall, Miss Hackney, Mrs. Hackney, Miss Osborne, Misses Mary and Annie Petty, from Guilford, and Mrs Mamie Crawford and Miss Applewhite.

WHAT IS THE DUTY OF THE HOUR?

WHAT AN OLD DEMOCRAT SAYS OF THE SITUATION.

Gives the History of the Necessity That Forced the City Democratic Organization Into Existence.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

Ordinarily, elections are not matters of absorbing interest to citizens—certainly not within the past few years. In the olden days, before the town began to put on city airs, we met in the court house and, with no political organization, selected a ticket. Having a decided majority we Democrats could generally afford now and again to put on a few Republicans. But in the course of human events there came a time when there was kicking, and the kickers put up another ticket. Rivalries and bitterness very naturally sprang out of the Pandora's box. Democrats were arrayed against Democrats. Wire-pulling Republicans, having nothing to lose and everything to gain by getting the Democrats together by the ears and not caring a snap which side won, kerncodled with that faction which promised to get up the biggest row. The negro bellwethers were given the cue. Blocks of five, ten or more, were put under the supervision of the aforesaid bellwethers and voted such tickets as they gave out. As to how they voted depended upon the market value of votes, which value depended upon the great law of supply and demand at that particular time. The longest pole got the coons. Then was seen the curious and shameful spectacle of Democrats "fighting the devil with fire." Good men, who would not themselves engage in the traffic, winked the other eye at those who did. At length a reaction set in. This sort of thing had to cease. A Democratic organization was effected. Only Democrats were to be put on guard. Democratic officials were henceforth to be held responsible for the city government An era of good government began. Srrife ceased. The vote seller's occupation, like that of Othello, was gone. Democratic nominees, selected in a Democratic convention, and not by secret conclave, were elected.

Shall we maintain this Democratic organization or return to the evil days of so-called citizens' tickets made by a few self-constituted bosses? Shall we allow Holton and his gang to say among themselves, "What fools these Democrats be—while they shake the trees we gather the fruit." It is an indisputable fact that a county election was once lost by a factional fight in town. It matters not which side was the most to blame, the result was county defeat. Is it wise to risk this at a time when the most important election ever held in the State is close at hand?

If the county ticket should be lost by Democratic disloyalty it were better that a millstone were hanged about the neck of those who bring it about.

What then is the obvious duty of every true Democrat? To your tents, oh Democrats—that is to say, to your primaries, oh Democrats, who have not bowed the knee to the Republican Baal, and name the men you wish for your servants and then ratify in open convention what has been done in the primaries, and then work till the sun goes down on election day.

STILL ON THE RAGGED EDGE.

The Vacant Places on the Ticket Have Not Yet Been Filled.

So far as anybody knows the "Tailors of Tooley Street" have not induced anybody to take the places made vacant by the withdrawal of the four Democrats who refused to run on a ticket with Republicans against the nominees of their party. It is high time that the Tailors had another famous meeting and patched up the scalloped edges of their ticket. It at present seems very much the worse for wear. One more cyclone of withdrawals will convert it into a hole in the ground. It may even now be called a skeleton ticket, with one foot in the grave and the other leg fast giving way.

But if the ticket is in this unhealthy condition the party behind the Tailors is vigorous and growing lustily, and is now able to make a great noise. We note this fact with interest. Yesterday, beside the Tailors themselves, and the white and black Republicans, the party numbered six. The last census before our going to press today showed the party to stand at the high water mark of seven. It will be noticed that this does not yet include the gentlemen whose names remain on the ticket. We leave out these because nobody has yet said that they would vote the ticket.

The latest revised census shows the condition of the two parties at 4 o'clock this afternoon as follows:

"CITIZENS PARTY:"

The Tailors	3
Democrats	7
White Republicans	100
Colored Republicans	300
Total	410

DEMOCRATIC PARTY:

White Democrats	800
Total	800

Anti-Clique Writes on Cliques.

To the Editor of the Telegram:

There is a feeling in the American heart against a few men trying to control public affairs, and the people generally rebuke such an assumption of power. Instead of waiting until the people could express their choice freely in the primaries, a few men call a hurried meeting and put up a ticket already "cut and dried," all of whom except two had been already seen and had consented to serve, as the political Manager coolly informed the people Now this isn't Democratic—the Democratic way is for the people to meet and put out a ticket. They will do this next Thursday and I do not believe that Democrats are going to fuse with negroes in order to defeat the will of the people. The "political manager" admits that a majority of the white people are opposed to his ticket, by the assidicus attention he is giving to the brother-in-black. It was a strange sight to many Democrats to see the "manager" and his assistants rushing negroes up to be registered, giving instructions to the hack drivers as they went after a fresh load, and to see the proud look of ownership on his face as the hacks delivered their loads. And all this in the year 1900, just as the people of the State have come to the conclusion that these ignorant negroes are not entitled to vote, and while they are making the fight of their lives to prevent it. Such a sight is an anachronism, whatever that may be. Anti-Clique.

NOT FIGHTING INDIVIDUALS.

The present fight in municipal politics has not been from the beginning a personal affair so far as the Telegram is concerned. On Monday before the meeting in the court house that night which put out the "Citizens' Ticket," the Telegram came out squarely against the movement. We then had no idea what men the meeting would nominate, how many persons would be in attendance, nor what they would say or do. We took our position against the movement because we saw it to be the beginning of a fight against the Democratic organization, and regarded it as unwise in the extreme, and dangerous to the best interest of the city and the county.

It made no difference to us whom the meeting nominated. We took our stand against the movement, not personally against the men who might be put out by it. And we further declared then, and have repeated every day since, that it is the duty of Democrats to await the nominating primary, go into it and nominate good men, and see that they are elected. The Telegram pledges its support to the men nominated by that primary, now, before they are nominated, and when we have no idea who will be nominated.

We are fighting for the organization which this year stands for white supremacy and good government in North Carolina, in town, county and State, and against a disruptive movement, uncalled for, unwise and dangerous. We are not fighting for individuals nor against individuals.

The Telegram today is immersed in the run of the day's stuff and for want of space is unable to give its usual Saturday contributions. In view of the present condition of affairs, however, this is no doubt the most interesting matter "a-goin'," and we always strive to be interesting.

It will be interesting to see what Senator Pritchard's convention here next Wednesday will have to say respecting the great question of the colonies —News and Observer.

Where are the colonies?

People who don't know the first letter of the Calvinistic creed are talking about "infant damnation," predestination and the like, and giving the Presbyterian brethren points. The Calvinists will settle this trouble among themselves. It really concerns nobody but their church and the matter of allowing their time-honored articles of faith to stand or of bringing them more up-to-date is one for them to determine.—Statesville Landmark.

But, dearest, they began it themselves, and are largely keeping it up themselves.

COLLEGE ATHLETICS.

Prof. Holt Writes Prof. Horner That The Tie Should be Played Off By Students.

Correspondence of the Telegram.

Oak Ridge, April 28—Prof. Holt has written Prof. Horner with regard to playing off the tie games of baseball between the schools. Prof. Holt writes him that both are agreed that there is very little fun and less credit to the schools of the State in playing "induced" men on the ball teams. That as each school has won from the other with men in part who, if not professional, were at least some of them not bona fide students, he proposes that the tie be played off by teams that are made up wholly by bona fide students, who are paying both board and tuition in the respective schools. In other words by men who are supporting the institutions and are entitled to the credit of representing their schools and not by men whom the institutions are supporting. Prof. Holt means no reflection on Mr. Horner by this proposition. He admits that the victory of the Horner team in the last game was fair and square according to the methods in vogue; but he thinks there ought to be one game played in North Carolina this year which shall be entirely free from professionalism on both sides. If the game is played some pretty playing will be seen and it will be the work of school boys, as it ought to be. This offer is open to other schools. Zeta.

Concerning Mr. Fairbrother.

The statement was made in the Telegram yesterday that Col. Al Fairbrother, who has just sold his paper, the Danville Bee, would go to Boston and enter the newspaper field there and in two years again locate in Durham, and revive the Globe. Col. Fairbrother called the Telegram up on the long distance 'phone this morning and said that this was a mistake, and that he had no idea of ever again locating in Durham. He is going to New York, he says, and is thinking of crossing "the pond" for awhile.

The steamer City of Rio de Janeiro, from Oriental ports, arrived at San Francisco, Cal., yesterday.

NOTES OF BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

(Books mentioned in this column are on sale at Wharton's Book Store.)

"To Have and to Hold," is one of the books of last year which has come over into 1900, and continues to be read with a real new year zest. The writer has not read the "Prisoner of Hope," by the same author, but if it is as good as her latest one, it deserves the popularity which it has attained. There is scarcely any word which describes Miss Johnston's latest work so well as charming. The scene is laid in Jamestown and rests upon that historical incident in which the lonely planters had come up with his 120 pounds of tobacco and purchased for himself a wife from the company of ninety young maidens whom the Company sent over for the purpose. Amongst these maidens of humble birth, was one fine young court lady, the King's ward, who fled in disguise with the ninety for the purpose of escaping being married to my Lord Carvel, a very mean and heartless favorite of the king. She was, in her humble clothes and surroundings, purchased by Capt. Ralph Percy, a gentleman in whose somewhat rough body beat a heart of pure gold. Now the lady at once disclosed to him that she was not what she seemed, told her story, and appealed to his generosity. The appeal was not in vain, and though she was wife in name only, Capt. Percy became her knight errant, his main purpose to show not his love—for as yet neither loved the other—but his chivalry. My Lord Carvel pursues her and the story becomes real facinating in telling how Capt. Percy frustrated him, braved the savages, overcame the pirates and conquered all other enemies in her defense. And, as might have been expected, the two fell in love with each other before the end, and the disinterested chivalry of Captain Percy and the great respect and confidence of Mrs. Percy turned into the most devoted affection. The character of Jeremy Sparrow, the fighting preacher, winds a fine string of humor through the story, and the romance and adventure are absorbing. The book has a distinctly good effect upon one.

"The Damnation of Theron Ware," though four or five years old, still has interest, and along with the author's other books has been brought into mind since Mr. Frederick's death some months ago because of a criminal neglect of medical aid. It is an incongruous thing that this author, who had his characters make all manner of sport of what they called superstitous religious beliefs, should himself be the victim of the silly and superstitous faith cure doctrine. This book is exceedingly interesting with some excellent spots, but it is bad. It serves no good purpose. The Rev. Theron Ware is an ass, a great big ass, and about the best thing in the book is where one of his probationers, Levi Gorridge, Esq., uttered the unprobationer-like words, "I'm dammed," because he had found a man so mean. The book contains some fine pen pictures, namely, Sister Soulsby, Father Forbes and the Methodist Conference. The latter is unexcelled. The compensating part of the book is in the last, where Miss Madden, the young lady over whom the Rev. Theron Ware became insane and for whose supposed love he deserted the affections of his faithful little wife, told him what an ass and a bore he had been. The book could have been wound up better, at least.

Under the caption of "Late Literary Information," Life says that General Buller is busy on a volume entitled "Held by the Enemy." Russel Sage has had bound for private circulation all the checks he had not given to tailors. It makes a large book. It is said that Anthony Comstock has in contemplation his autobiography. It will not be published until after his death, however, owing to the strict censorship that at present prevails over American morals. Rudyard Kipling is writing another poem which he will refuse to accept pay for. It is a sequel to the Recessional, and will be entitled, "God help us to forget." Oliver Cromwell has written to the Century to say that if he had known all these things were going to be written about him he would have done more things that were really interesting.

THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

We believe that Chamberlains's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough, and having read their advertisements in our own own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see how it would affect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

RHEUMATISM

Distorts Muscles, Shatters Nerves, Stiffens Joints.

Is due to an acid poison which gains access to the blood through failure of the proper organs to carry off and keep the system clear of all morbid, effete matter. This poison through the general circulation is deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the most intense pain.

Rheumatism may attack with such suddenness and severity as to make within a few days a healthy, active person helpless and bed-ridden, with distorted limbs and shattered nerves; or it may be slow in developing, with slight wandering pains, just severe enough to make one feel uncomfortable; the tendency in such cases is to grow worse, and finally become chronic.

Like other blood diseases, Rheumatism is often inherited, and exposure to damp or cold, want of proper food, insufficient clothing, or anything calculated to impair the health, will frequently cause it to develop in early life, but more often not until middle age or later. In whatever form, whether acute or chronic, acquired or inherited, and no liniment or other external treatment can reach the trouble. Neither do the preparations of potash and mercury, and the various mineral salts, which the doctors always prescribe, cure Rheumatism, but ruin the digestion and break down the constitution.

Rheumatism is Strictly a Blood Disease,

A remedy which builds up the general health and at the same time rids the system of the poison is the only safe and certain cure for Rheumatism. S. S. S., made of roots, herbs and barks of wonderful solvent, purifying properties, attacks the disease in the right way, and in the right place—the blood—and quickly neutralizes the acid and dissolves all poisonous deposits, stimulates and reinforces the overworked, worn-out organs, and clears the system of all unhealthy accumulations. S. S. S. cures permanently and thoroughly, and keeps the blood in a pure, healthy state.

Mr. J. O. Malley, 123 W. 19th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eighteen months was so terribly afflicted with Rheumatism he was unable to feed or dress himself. Doctors said his case was hopeless. He had tried fifty-two prescriptions that friends had given him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a rheumatic pain since. This was five years ago.

We will send free our special book on Rheumatism, which should be in the hands of every sufferer from this torturing disease. Our physicians have made blood and skin diseases a life study, and will give you any information or advice wanted, so write them fully and freely about your case. We make no charge whatever for this service.

MR. DOCKERY'S MARRIAGE.

The Ceremony Which United Him to Miss Ryder, of New York.

New York Tribune, 22nd.

The marriage of Miss Maude May Ryder, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Seth Rider of No. 160 West Eighty street, to Claudius Dockery, of Raleigh, N. C., took place at noon yesterday at the church of Eternal Hope, a few doors from the home of the bride. The distance being so short an awning was stretched from the church to the house, and the bridal procession walked the brief space. The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a gown of white satin crepe de chine, elaborately trimmed with duches lace and a veil of tulle, which was fastened with orange blossoms and a diamond sunburst, a gift from the bridegroom. Her attendants were Miss Flossie Wall, a niece of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, and four bridemaids, Miss Grace Horner, Miss Nomie Sullivan, Miss Anna Sullivan and Miss Sophie Fleiges. The maid of honor wore a pretty gown of white crepe de chine and a hat of white tulle, ornamented with pink roses. The bridesmaids, in couples, wore gowns of white point d'esprit over blue, green and yellow sattin. Their Charlotte Corday bonnets of white straw were trimmed with flowers to correspond. Victor Hugh Boyden, of Raleigh, was Mr. Dockery's best man. The ushers were the bride's brothers, Archibald M. Ryder and Herbert E. Ryder; John Hencken and Henry Utof. A reception and wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. W. S. Crowe, the pastor. Mr. and Mrs. Dockery, whose permanent home will be in Raleigh, will spend a part of the coming summer in the cottage at Long Branch, presented to the bride by her mother. After their honeymoon trip Mr. Dockery, who is a son of Colonel Oliver H. Dockery, of North Carolina, will take his bride to Europe for a brief stay.

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for conghs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? COLD STEEL OR DEATH

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is by an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wisconsin, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous powers of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price fifty cents at C. E Holton's drug store.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

The Theologians Contrasted With the Unchallenged Belief of Moody—Didn't Get The Time.

Written for the Saturday Telegram.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life?" John 3:16.

From the time whereof the memory of more runneth not to the contrary big preachers have confused, stirred, and disturbed the peace of the church; and dignity of the State has been worried by politicians. The wisdom of man is foolishness with God as this one and the other of different denominations attempt to point the way to Heaven. And frequently a text of Scripture, that to an ordinary, average, mind carries the meaning on the face, is so twisted, mangled and distorted by the reasoning of the man of profound thought that the hearer becomes distrustful of his Bible and will quit hunting the way of salvation, which we are taught is so plain that a fool should understand it.

Just at the time, the religious world, or rather reading people, interested in church matters, are much concerned in the stir made by the kicks given the Confession of Faith by Doctors Hillis, Parkhurst, and other preachers not unknown to fame. And this stir is calculated not only to do harm to the church of which these distinguished gentlemen are preachers, but damage will arise to other denominations as well. It is not difficult to note the absence of the equity of the Spirit among the churches, and this lack of unity is usually in consequence of the antics and capers of men who know so much. There has not been a division in a branch of the Church of God not traceable to the desire of some fellow to become a sensationalist. Dr. Hillis has been this ever since going to New York to fill Beecher's church, and Doctor Parkhurst is never happy unless he is making a sensation of some kind—and is an old hand at the business. It is no need for brethren to get mad and call these educated men asses. That term does not apply to either. They are able men and have many followers. And their disaffection will prove contagious and the men in the Presbyterian church will follow them in the demands being made for a revision of the Creed. And after awhile smart Methodist and Baptist brethren will be talking at some of the doctrines of long standing in their respective churches. It is the truth that in much of the preaching, in this generation, the sure way of salvation— he way of Christ is often not even hinted at. Preachers, the big fellows, fill up on questions of sociology, the clergy, higher criticism, more education, and other stuff having so little bearing on the way of life that you seldom hear of revivals; and the reports at the Annual Conferences and other religious bodies are in evidence that sinners do not flock to the mourners bench and enquiry room as in the days gone by. It is not pessimism to say that the closing days of the Nineteenth Century are not specially bright for the church. There is trouble brewing for her. And it is due to the action of men who do not preach the Gospel in its simplicity and purity and power, but read essays on matters, and talk on subjects, that Christ never connected with the duties of the ministry.

During the discussion of the Briggs heresy case some years ago, writes W E Curtis in the Chicago Record, I sought an interview with Mr. Moody on "higher criticism."

"I am not up to that sort of thing," he said, with a twinkle in his eye. "You see, I never studied theology, and I am precious glad I didn't. There are so many things in the Bible that everybody can understand that I am going to preach about them until they are exhausted, and then, if I have any time left, I'll take up the texts I don't understand. Mr. Moody never had time but continued to be the brave Christian soldier preaching always, the sure way, until "taps" sounded when he laid down to rest leaving behind a record as a soul saver, or rather a man saver, that not one of the "big preachers" has yet attained or ever will. The people heard him gladly; sinners were converted to God under his ministry; and he was a preacher who took delight in the fact that he knew no theology. And it is disputed questions in church theology that provoke heresy trials and unrest in the religious world.

Jesus Christ went about preaching and working miracles. Nicodemus, an eminent theologian, distinguished in the Synagogue and a ruler among the Jews heard of these things and went by night to interview the Savior of mankind. The Savior told him he must be born again. That there was no getting into the Kingdom without regeneration. His ritual might have been a model in get up in every respect and his robes of office very beautiful, but, Christ looked beyond man-made creeds and ecclesiastical paraphanalia and bombast and pointed Nicodemus in words not to be misunderstood the way of everlasting life, and John 3:16 is the way—and there is no other way.

"Whosoever," opens the gate, on the way of Salvation, indiscriminately; but only they who 'believe' are saved. And the converse of this proposition is that they who do not 'believe' are damned. That theology is as plain as the nose on your face. "Whosoever" is doctrine not antagonistic either to Calvinism or Armenianism. And he who believes in the Lord Jesus Christ and has accepted Him as a personal Savior, is a saved man now; and it doesn't make a particle of difference what church he belongs to or whether he knows theology. When Jesus Christ preached, even the common people heard Him gladly because He used language they understood. If He had talked to them as do some of the bright lights of this generation his followers would have been few, indeed. Not long ago the writer heard a preacher use the phrase, modus operandi, probably he had gotten it out of the back of a dictionary, in connection with a sermon on regeneration. He said: "Brethren, the modus operandi of the new-birth is" etc. One of the congregation said he never heard it called by that name before; didn't know the meaning of the words, and wished the preacher would not talk in an unknown tongue. But we may all be glad that the Savior has spoken in language—plain simple, and clear as a sunbeam. 'God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.' There is consolation and satisfaction in these words so free from all doubtful meaning. If they are true, and we believe them, it is salvation; if we don't believe, they mean damnation. This verse contains all the theology and religion that you need. Let it be your creed It's enough, and if it does not point the sure way nothing else does.

FOR THE BABIES.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a single attack since.—A. B. Eve may have had her troubles, but Adam never brought his friends home to dinner unexpectedly.

Cleanse the liver, purify the blood, invigorate the body by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills always acts promptly. Howard Gardner.

One kind of financial embarrassment is when a man has so much money he doesn't know what to do with it.

"Blood tells." But we rarely recognize the fact except in times of stress and strain. A horse which looks like a "scrub" may beat another horse which seems the ideal of a racer, just by that one quality of good blood. Similarly men, who seem in the pink of condition drop down under the racing strain of business. Why? Blood tells. Men reckoned perfectly healthy start out for business, they make a run for the train, and collapse. "Heart failure" they call it. Blood failure would be often the better name.

Take care of the blood and the body will take care of itself. It is the blood which builds the body. The blood indeed is the body. A sound body must be based on sound blood.

It is one of the peculiar properties of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it eliminates from the blood the effete and poisonous matter which is antagonistic to health. It also gives to the blood those elements which are necessary to its strength and vitality. Thus by the use of "Golden Medical Discovery" purity of blood and power of body have been attained by thousands of sickly and scrofulous men and women.

No other medicine purifies the blood and builds the body as does the "Discovery." Accept no substitute.

"It gives me much pleasure to testify to the merits of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Miss Annie Wells, of Fergusson's Wharf, Isle of Wight Co., Va. "I can say honestly and candidly that it is the grandest medicine ever compounded for purifying the blood. I suffered terribly with rheumatism, and pimples on the skin and swelling in my knees and feet so that I could not walk. I spent about twenty dollars paying doctors' bills but received no benefit. A year or two ago I was reading one of your Memorandum Books and I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and am entirely cured."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are graduated to the requirements of woman's delicate system. They regulate the stomach, liver and bowels.

"True religion," says the Manayunk Philosopher, "is the fire escape of the soul."

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

BIDS FOR CITY HALL.

Opened by the Board of Aldermen—Last Night's Meeting.

The Board of Aldermen were called together in special session yesterday afternoon for the purpose of opening and considering bids for the construction of the city hall for Greensboro. All members were present except Elam, Merritt, Denny and Wright. The bids were opened and referred to the building committee for examination and report. There are eight bids, six from local contractors, one from Atlanta and one from Providence, R. I.

REGULAR SESSION.

At night the board met in regular session, the mayor in the chair. All were present except Merritt, Vuncanon and Wright.

The report of City Engineer Bandy was read and filed.

Alderman Sergeant offered an ordinance repealing the ordinance passed last July in regard to the distribution of advertising bills. It was adopted.

Aldermen Merrimon and Denny were appointed a committee to settle with the different city officers.

The city treasurer made a verbal report to the board stating that the finances of the city were in better condition this year and that there will be less of floating indebtedness by several thousand dollars than for a number of years.

Alderman Merrimon moved that the finance committee be instructed to make inquiry of the different banking institutions here as to whether they would pay as much or more than the amount at present being realized on the money derived from the sale of the $35,000 building bonds now in the hands of the United States Mortgage and Trust Co., of New York, and if they could get as much or more to bring the money to Greensboro and deposit it here. The motion was carried.

Alderman Merrimon moved that a vote of thanks be extended to Mayor Taylor for the faithful, efficient and impartial manner in which he has discharged the duties of the office of mayor. This motion was carried, after which the board adjourned.

HEARTS SET ON GOOD ROADS

Club Getting Down to Work—President Lindley's Scheme.

The Good Roads Club held a meeting in the County Court House this morning at 10 o'clock. The crowd was small, but what was lacking in attendance was made up in enthusiasm. It is apparant that those who have studied the question and identified themselves with the movement are desperately in earnest, but the greatest difficulty is found in enlisting the support of the general public. Not having made a careful investigation of the matter, many taxpayers are unfamiliar with the terms of the proposed bond issue, and some effective missionary work is badly needed.

President Lindley spoke along this line and urged the necessity of the association taking some steps to arouse interest in the movement. In answer to questions from a number of persons as to how the bonds are to be paid, he presented a mathematical calculation showing that the proposed $300,000 of bonds can be liquidated by the payment of only $108,000 principal money. By annually setting aside the sum of $4,000 as a sinking fund for a period of 27 years, bearing compound interest at the rate of 6 per cent., the debt could be paid without increasing the present rate of taxation—12½ cents. If it should be desired to set aside a sinking fund each of the thirty years the bonds are to run, the amount would of course be something less than $4,000.

Mr. W. C. Rankin, a farmer living a few miles northeast of the city, on the road leading out from Summmit Avenue, which is being macadamized by private subscriptions, spoke of the unanimous sentiment in favor of good roads existing in his community.

A young farmer from Friendship township made an encouraging speech, saying that, so far as he knew, every taxpayer in his township was favorable to the bond issue.

A letter from Mr. R. C. Dick, a substantial citizen of Eastern Guilford, was read by President Lindley. Mr. Dick wrote that sentiment in his section was rapidly crystalizing in favor of good roads.

Messrs. John L. King and E. P. Wharton and Prof. J. M. Bandy also made short talks.

The date of the next meeting was left with the Central Executive Committee.

A Notable Coincidence.

The convention of "many citizens" was held upon the same day as the Republican convention, and the Republican who made the warmest speech against the amendment and the Democratic party that afternoon was honored that night with a place on the Citizen's ticket. Democrats will do well to think on this well before they decide to support such a ticket.

A Card.

To whom it may concern:—There is no secrecy about the contracts of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., nor about their estimates of dividends to policy holders. Any man in Greensboro interested in Life Insurance is extended a cordial invitation to call at my office and I will make him up an illustration of the kind of policy he may want as it would be if written in the Mutual Life. He is at liberty to show this illustration to other agents, hear all they have got to say about it and take his choice. I have also on file the current financial statements of all the Insurance Companies doing business in the United States, these records are open to the public at all times. The Mutual Life has always courted investigation, both private and official, and this open and above board policy has made it the largest and strongest financial institution in the world.

THE CITY'S FINANCES.

Better Condition Than in Several Years Past.

Capt. Neil Ellington, treasurer of the city of Greensboro, made a statement before the board of aldermen last night that is peculiarly gratifying to the friends of the present administration, as to all who desire good government and the success and development of our beautiful city. Much has been said by the enemies of the present Democratic administration about the city's floating indebtedness, charging it to the "bad management" of the present board, and the statement has gone out that "matters are getting worse."

What are the facts? Capt. Ellington has for several years been treasurer of the city, and no man is in position to know more about its real financial condition than he is. He is a man of large experience and his statement carries conviction with it. He says: "There has not been a time in several years that the city was as free from floating debt as at the present time. The floating indebtedness will be reduced this year by several thousand dollars more than in any preceding year. I have been on the board twelve or thirteen years and the condition of the city's finances is better now than at any time since I have been a member of this body."

Coming from such high and indisputable authority that statement is very gratifying to the friends of the present administration, and is a strong argument in favor of continuing the Democratic administration, with such changes as the Democratic organization may see fit to make in its primaries.

TO ESTABLISH AN OFFICE.

The Mutual Life of New York Will Make This The Principal Agency in North Carolina.

The Mutual Life of New York, recognizes the growing importance of Greensboro as a commercial and financial centre and will enlarge its office here, making the Greensboro office its principal office in North Carolina.

Mr. F. H. Hyatt, the general agent of the Mutual life was in the city two days last week, looking over the field with a view of increasing the importance of the Greensboro agency. He expressed himself as surprised at the remarkable growth of the city within the last few years, and before he left Greensboro he announced his intention to open an office here that was in keeping with the growing importance of the city, and in fact second to none in the State. In the future the Greensboro office force will consist of three "Special Agents" and an office manager. These special agents will cover the Piedmont section of North Carolina, and as all their literature, advertising matter and contracts will be printed "Greensboro District Agency," it will in the end do a good deal to advertise the city of Greensboro itself. Mr. Hyatt was more than pleased with the work of his local office here for the last three months, under the management of Mr. R. P. Walters, and these new arrangements will give Mr. Walters a deserved promotion in the ranks of Mutual Life field men.

Z. V. Taylor—999 good reasons why he should be re-elected Mayor of Greensboro, and not one against it. "Outs" can't get "in this time. "No sir ree." Democratic ticket bound to win. Old Fogy.

Over 500 Negroes Registered.

By the combined efforts of the Republican machine and certain Democrats identified with the "Citizens" movement, these has just closed the largest registration of negroes in the history of the city. A few disaffected Democrats are counting upon the help of a heavy negro and white Republican vote with which to defeat the democratic party of the city of Greensboro. "Isn't this a dainty dish to set before a" Democrat!!! When the rub comes, there will be found precious few Democrats who will swallow this kind of a "black bird pie."

Gov. Russell May Appear for Taylor.

The Raleigh Times-Visitor quotes Col. J. C. L. Harris as saying that since Governor Taylor, of Kentucky, had failed to secure ex-President Harrison to argue his case before the United States Supreme Court next Monday that an effort would be made to secure the services of Governor Russel to make chief argument in his case.

India Famine.

On India's plains they perish
Hark that cry of "Save, Oh, save."
Mothers pleading for their children,
"Keep my loved ones from the grave."
And from out this land of plenty,
Where the sun shines warm and fair,
Go these heart beats for the children,
Goes the answer to their prayer.

Bare feet are almost preferable to some shoes. The kind that it is necessary to break in generally make a man break out and say things. We had made purposely for comfort a lot of men's fine kid shoes in lace and congress. The prices are right.

Next to the Consumer is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
